Attorney Thomas' Opinion on the Morse Bill.

APPROVED BY THE BOARD

Pay Tax Hereafter-Board's Decision to Be Final Save as to Questions of Law, Which May Be Appealed.

The Commissioners forwarded today to Chairman Enbeock of the House District Committee, in response to his verbal re-quest for their views, a copy of an opinion rendered by Attorney Thomas upon the amendments to the excise law, as pro-posed in the Morse bill, introduced last session, to regulate the sale of liquor in the District, and known as House bill the District, and known as House bill 1888, the opinion of the attorney having the indorsement of the board.

Mr. Thomas and the Commissioners concur in the proposed amendment of section one, which proposes to strike out certain words which exempt brewers and brewers' agents from payment of license tax, but do not indorse the amendment suggested to the section, which provides for appeals in license cases from the excise board to the District courts, which is as follows: the District courts, which is as follows: "Questions of law may be appealed to the upreme court of the District, either by the pplicant or by any contestant of record." ENLARGING THE AREA.

ENLARGING THE AREA.

The Morse bill proposes to amend section 5 of the present law—first, by enlarging the area of property owners and residents whose consent is required to the location of a barroom on a street corner, and next, by changing the rule of measurement in reference to barrooms in the District outside of the city, so as to require measurements to be made from the "building" in which the barroom is located, and not from "the place." as now. Also by striking out all the carroom is located, and not roan place," as now. Also by striking out all of section 5 after the words "make the place a barroom," and other change of verbiage, the effect of which is to alter the provision declaring what shall be deemed a

Mr. Thomas favors the first and second changes, but objects to the others, because he argues, one suggestion offered will render prosecutions for violations of the law more difficult.

DEFINING THE MINORITY LIMIT. The attorney thinks the proposed change is proper in the sixth section, which strikes out the words, "above the age of sixteen years," as defining the age of minority, but says the court has construed existing law as if the words were not there.

His opinion is adverse to the amendment to section 15, which would require the prose-

Probable Motive of Veteran James

Lown's Suicide.

The probable motive for the suicide of Veteran James Lown developed today. As told in The Morning Times he took a big dose of morphine and then turned on the dose of morphine and then turned a oig dose of morphine and then turned on the gas, at the Oronoco House, No. 604 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, and died in his bed.

The motive for the deed is believed to be a warrant held by Detectives Carter and Gallaher, charging Lown with perjury in the divorce suit of John Walter, sr., the wealthy property owner of No. 1011 E street northwest, and his wife, Mrs. Johanna Walter, who is plaintiff.

Lown made oath that he saw Mr. Walter violate the Edmunds act, which the defendant denies, and claims was perjury on the part of Lown.

The warrant was to have been served yesterday, and a knowledge of this fact, it is believed, drove him to succide.

The veteran will be buried at Arlington homorrow by the G. A. R., with military honors.
